1. St Andrews, Scotland

St Andrews is the home of golf, and the Old Course is one of the most iconic golf courses in the world. It's a challenging course, but it's also fair, and it's a must-play for any golfer.

In addition to the Old Course, St Andrews has a number of other great golf courses, including the New Course, the Jubilee Course, and the Eden Course. There are also a number of other attractions in St Andrews, such as the British Golf Museum, the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrews, and the University of St Andrews.

2. Pebble Beach, California

Pebble Beach is another one of the world's most iconic golf courses. It's located on the Monterey Peninsula in California, and it offers stunning views of the Pacific Ocean. The course is challenging, but it's also fair, and it's a must-play for any golfer.

In addition to Pebble Beach Golf Links, the Monterey Peninsula is home to a number of other great golf courses, including Spyglass Hill Golf Course, Spanish Bay Golf Course, and the Links at Spanish Bay. There are also a number of other attractions in the Monterey Peninsula, such as the Monterey Bay Aquarium, the Cannery Row, and the 17-Mile Drive.

3. Bandon Dunes, Oregon

Bandon Dunes is a relatively new golf resort, but it has quickly become one of the most popular in the world. It's located on the Oregon coast, and it offers stunning views of the Pacific Ocean. The courses are challenging, but they're also fair, and they're a must-play for any golfer.

In addition to the four championship golf courses, Bandon Dunes also has a number of other amenities, such as a spa, a fitness center, and a variety of dining options. There are also a number of other attractions in the area, such as the Oregon Coast Trail, the Samuel H. Boardman State Scenic Corridor, and the Cape Arago Lighthouse.

4. Royal County Down, Northern Ireland

Royal County Down is one of the most challenging golf courses in the world. It's located in Northern Ireland, and it offers stunning views of the Mourne Mountains and the Irish Sea. The course is challenging, but it's also fair, and it's a must-play for any golfer.

In addition to the championship golf course, Royal County Down also has a number of other amenities, such as a spa, a fitness center, and a variety of dining options. There are also a number of other attractions in the area, such as the Mourne Mountains, the Giant's Causeway, and the Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge.

5. Augusta National Golf Club, Georgia

Augusta National Golf Club is the home of the Masters Tournament, one of the most prestigious golf tournaments in the world. The course is challenging, but it's also fair, and it's a must-play for any golfer.

In addition to the championship golf course, Augusta National Golf Club also has a number of other amenities, such as a spa, a fitness center, and a variety of dining options. There are also a number of other attractions in the area, such as the Augusta Museum of History, the Morris Museum of Art, and the Savannah River National Wildlife Refuge.

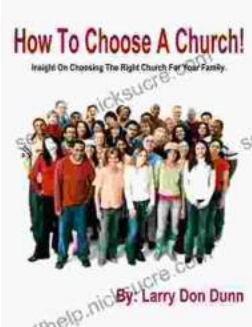

These are just a few of the world's greatest golf destinations. If you're looking for a new golf adventure, be sure to add one of these courses to your list.
