Planning Your Trip

The first step in planning your motorcycle trip to Colombia is to decide when you want to go. The best time to ride is during the dry season, which runs from December to March. During this time, the weather is generally good and the roads are dry.

No matter which route you choose, be sure to allow plenty of time for riding. The distances between cities can be long, and the roads can be challenging. It's important to pace yourself and enjoy the journey.

- Wear a helmet. This is the most important thing you can do to protect yourself in the event of an accident.
- Obey the speed limits. Speeding is one of the leading causes of motorcycle accidents.
- Be aware of your surroundings. Pay attention to the road and other traffic, and be prepared to react to unexpected situations.
- Don't drink and drive. Alcohol impairs your judgment and coordination, which can increase your risk of an accident.
- Get insurance. Motorcycle insurance is not required in Colombia, but it's a good idea to have it in case of an accident.
